

2023

Hannah Heaton Adhikari (b. 2000) is an active Pianist, award-winning Composer, and Private Piano teacher in the Columbus, MS area. She holds a B.A. in Music for Performance & Composition, has over a decade of professional experience, and has been Teaching for over 6 years. Hannah is affiliated with MTNA, BMI Classical, NFMC, and Golden Triangle Music Forum. She's currently a Full-Time Composer & Piano Teacher in her Studio of around 30 students. She is also a Part-Time Collaborative, Event, + Community Pianist & YouTuber. Hannah regularly composes Piano Solos, Materials/Books for her Students, & other Commissioned Works. Her music has been featured in CD albums, Local Presentations, MTNA Concerts + Lecture Recitals, & is on most Streaming Sites. Her newest releases include her Piano Solo Albums "Mozart in the Morning," "Trains of Thought," & More all streaming now! Learn more about Hannah and her music from her website: <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>.

Hannah Heaton Adhikari (b. 2000) is an active Pianist, award-winning Composer, and Private Piano teacher in the Columbus, MS area. She holds B.A. in Music for Piano Performance & Composition, has over a decade of professional experience as a Pianist & Composer, and 5+ years of Teaching Experience. Hannah is affiliated with the Music Teacher's National Association (MTNA), the National Federation of Music Clubs (NFMC), National Association of Composers USA (NACUSA) & with BMI Royalties.

Hannah Adhikari is currently a Composer, Collaborative and Event Pianist, YouTuber, and Full-Time Piano Teacher in her Studio of around 30 students. She regularly composes for herself, materials and piano solos for her Studio, and commissioned musical works. Adhikari's Composition "Around Me," was featured on violinist Serena Scibelli's album "Reflections," in 2021. She most recently released two Solo Piano Albums, "Childhood Memories" and "Trains of Thought" streaming now.

2022

Hannah Heaton Adhikari (b. 2000) is an active Pianist, award-winning Composer, and Private Piano teacher in the Columbus, MS area. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Piano Performance and Composition from the Mississippi University for Women in Mississippi. Hannah is an involved member and performer of her works in the Composer Associations, BMI and NACUSA, and she actively pursues competitions, theory exams, and performance opportunities for her Piano Studio of around 30 students through her Music Teacher Association Memberships, MTNA and NFMC. As a Pianist, Composer, & Teacher, Hannah is passionate about writing, teaching, and performing Music and her Compositions. Her main goal in life is to inspire the love of Music into all who listen to her music and to all in her Piano Studio. Learn more about Hannah and her music from her website: <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>.

Hannah Heaton Adhikari (b. 2000) is an active Pianist, award-winning Composer, and Private Piano Teacher in the Columbus, MS area. As a Pianist, Composer, & Teacher, Hannah is passionate about writing, teaching, and performing Music and her Compositions. Her main goal in life is to inspire the love of Music into all who listen to her music and to all in her Piano Studio of around 30 students.

2021

Hannah Heaton Adhikari (b. 2000) is a pianist, composer, and private piano teacher graduating in May of 2022 with a B.A. in Piano Performance at the Mississippi University for Women in Columbus, MS. She began playing the piano at age 8, composing at age 11, and teaching piano full time at age 20. She has continued to be an active member of BMI and NACUSA since 2019. In 2021, Hannah was named MTNA's Young Artist Composer in the state of Mississippi for the third year in a row since 2019. She won 1st place in the MTNA's Regional Southern Division for her tenor saxophone and violin duet "For Serena" in 2020. Her violin solo, "Around Me," was also featured in Serena Scibelli's album, "Reflections," to bring awareness to musicians during the COVID-19 Pandemic; the album, "Reflections," was released in 2021. Hannah is passionate about writing music for the piano and uses her composition skills and years of knowledge as a pianist as a tool to inspire a new generation of pianists in her Piano Studio of 14 students.

Learn more about Hannah and her music from her website: <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>.

2020

Hannah Heaton (b. 2000) is a pianist, composer, and private piano teacher studying a B.A. in Music at the MUW in Columbus, MS. She's an MTNA collegiate member and member of BMI Classical and NACUSA. She was named MTNA's Young Artist Composer in the state of Mississippi for her piano violin duet, "Out of Reach" in 2019. Her violin solo "Around Me" will be featured in Serena Scibelli's album, "Reflections," being released in 2020. <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>

Hannah Heaton (b. 2000) is a pianist, composer, and private piano teacher studying a B.A. in Music at Mississippi University for Women in Columbus, MS. She began playing the piano at age 8 and composing at age 11. She has continued to be an active member of BMI and NACUSA since 2019. In 2020, Hannah was named MTNA's Young Artist Composer in the state of Mississippi for the second year in a row since 2019. She also won 1st place in the MTNA's Regional Southern Division for her tenor saxophone and violin duet "For Serena" in 2020. Hannah enjoys collaborating with her colleagues through piano accompaniment and commissioned compositions. Her violin solo, "Around Me," was also featured in Serena Scibelli's album, "Reflections," which was released in 2021. Learn more about Hannah and her music at her website: <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>

2019

Hannah Heaton (b. 2000) is a pianist and composer studying a B.A. in Piano Performance degree at Mississippi University for Women (MUW) in Columbus, MS. She began playing the piano at 8 years old and composing around age 11. In the fall of 2019, she was named the Mississippi Music Teachers National Association's Young Artist Composer for her piano violin duet, "Out of Reach." Hannah also won honorable mention in the MTNA Young Artist Southern Division for "Out of Reach" in 2020. She is a student member of the Broadcast Music Incorporation Classical (BMI Classical) the National Association of Composers/USA Mid-South Chapter (NACUSA), and The College Music Society (CMS) in the Southern Region. Hannah is also the accompanist for the Columbus Junior Girl Choir in Columbus, MS, a part-time collaborative pianist, and a part-time private piano teacher. She regularly participates in NACUSA and MUW hosted concerts performing both classical pieces and her own compositions. Upon graduation, Hannah wishes to regularly compose and also privately teach piano to encourage the love of music in all her prospective students. Learn more about Hannah and her music at her website: <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>.

2018

Hannah Heaton (b. 2000) is a composer and pianist (b. 2000). Coming from a military family of nine, Hannah was born in Alaska and has been living in Mississippi since 2005. Hannah has been playing the piano since she was 8 years old and began composing around age 11. In her spare time, Hannah loves to read and play the piano. She is working on a B.M. in Music Education with a focus in piano and composition at Mississippi University for Women in Columbus, MS. Hannah is working toward her goal of teaching piano in her own studio and becoming a professional composer. You can learn more about Hannah and her music at her website: <https://hannahehmusic.wixsite.com/pianist>